

Aldersgate United Methodist Church

“sharing the living Christ through life-changing service and love”

The work of Christmas

by Howard Thurman

When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:

To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among people,
To make music in the heart.

And, the work of Christmas begins...I love this piece by Howard Thurman.

I think that this is at the heart of what we are to be about as Aldersgate United Methodist Church for the coming year...and, beyond.

For the past forty days, I have invited you to pray about the “Something Bigger” of your life and how that will move Aldersgate United Methodist Church into her next 40 years.

On Sunday, January 1st, you are invited to share in The Wesley Covenant Service. This is a beautiful service in the richest sense of the Wesleyan tradition. It centers around the individual’s calling and commitment to Jesus Christ. The sermon title for this Sunday is, “A New Year and A New Future.”

On Sunday, January 8th, you are invited to a very special morning at Aldersgate UMC. The morning begins at 9:00 AM with a time of celebrating the connection that each of us has to Aldersgate United Methodist Church and our calling to that connection...and, a special Epiphany breakfast (see the article “So why doesn’t anything Epiph anymore?.” We will move from the breakfast into our morning worship and share in the Re-affirmation of our Baptismal Vows. I am really excited about these services and I think that they are both excellent ways to begin the New Year.

I am taking this opportunity, as your pastor, to invite you to share in these beautiful services of renewal and recommitment at the January 8th service. There will be an invitation for those desiring to be baptized. If you have never been baptized, this will be a wonderful opportunity to do so. Please call Rev. Tracy L. MacKenzie to discuss this before the service.

If you have already been baptized, there will be an opportunity to "remember your baptism."

At the end of our service, there will be an invitation extended to Christian Discipleship “for all who would like to unite with our congregation either through profession of faith or transfer of membership from another denomination or another United Methodist Church.” As United Methodists, we acknowledge and affirm all baptisms in the Christian Church and do not require a “re-baptism” into the United Methodist Church. At this service, there will also be a “re-affirmation” of our vows for existing members. In the 2008 General Conference of the United Methodist Church, there was a change in the wording of the membership vows for all United Methodists...the word “witness” was added to the vow. Therefore, the question asked of those who desire to become a member of a local congregation is: “Will you be loyal to the United Methodist Church, and uphold it by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service and your witness?”

I cannot tell you how proud and thankful I am to be your pastor at Aldersgate UMC. I affirm the greatness of this church and her desire to answer the call to be a part of the mission and ministry of the gospel of Jesus Christ. To be a member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church is to be part of a rich history of "faith-ful and faith-filled" people seeking to make disciples of Jesus Christ. In the Book of Discipline, this covenant is defined as follows: “A member is bound in sacred covenant to shoulder the burdens, share the risks, and celebrate the joys of fellow members.” In this covenant, members are called to lead and serve the church in mutual love. This is the membership to which you are being invited to join.

If I can be of any help, please contact me and let me know.

Peace and grace to you,

Rev. Tracy L. MacKenzie, Lead Pastor
Aldersgate UMC

So, why doesn't anything Epiph anymore?

Epiphany is more than a day in January when we bring forth the King Cakes and talk about the visit of the Magi from the east to Jesus...

In the early church, the Epiphany was one of the great feast days—second only to Easter in its importance. The third great feast was Pentecost. In the contemporary church we somewhat water down these events... Easter-Epiphany-Pentecost... to days that we talk about rather than the world changing events that they were in the life of the Christian church. They were, in fact, the focus of the early church...

No extra charge for this one: did you know that no body even thought about celebrating Christmas until the fourth century?

The word Epiphany means “manifestation” or “revelation.” The Wise Men are celebrated on Epiphany because they represented the revelation of Jesus to the Gentiles.

So, here's the question, “How come nothing epiphs anymore?” Or, how about this question, “Why was Epiphany so important, and why does it seem so unimportant now?”

In the days when Epiphany was a great church feast, it also celebrated the revelation of Jesus in his first miracle—changing water into wine at Cana—and the manifestation of Jesus as the Son of God at his baptism. Those three things—the Wise Men, Cana, and the Baptism were all lumped together to symbolize the revelation of God in Jesus Christ, and such revelation was cause for great celebration.

That a baby was born in a manger was relatively unimportant, compared with the events that proved to the world who that baby was. The authority of Jesus was validated by the signs he performed—like changing water into wine—by the voice of God and descending dove at his baptism, and through signs in the heavens that could be interpreted by the Gentiles.

Those signs were God's way of saying, “Hey...this is the guy!” and Epiphany was the church's way of saying, “And we can never be the same again.”

So why doesn't anything epiph anymore?

Probably the best answer to this question is, simply, we no longer expect it. We no more expect God to be revealed in our midst than we expect stores to start giving away merchandise. And because we don't expect it, we get what we expect. The early church was a church full of energy, excitement and expectation. They anticipated the return of Jesus at any time, and the persecutions which they endured forced them to be aware of their faith and sometimes to die for their faith at times.

Many of us today have lost that sense of energy, excitement and expectation. In the early church, the feast of the Epiphany was to remind us that God appears miraculously to us in places and in ways that we don't expect. If we keep remembering that God seems to thrive on unexpected appearances and if we keep expecting to see God everywhere we turn, we are not too likely to miss it when it happens again.

I pray that in the coming year Aldersgate United Methodist Church may find a renewed sense of energy, excitement, expectation as we move forward the Kingdom of God.

Blessings,

From Psalm 63

O God, you are my God, I seek you, my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

² So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory.

³ Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you.

⁴ So I will bless you as long as I live; I will lift up my hands and call on your name.

It is that time of year where we reflect on how the past year went, remembering all the goals we had set throughout the year, our personal to-do lists on what we wanted to change, what we wanted to accomplish, what projects we wanted to finally finish. We find these surveys and questionnaires all over, in magazines, on-line in Facebook or other social media. I think it is great that we spend time reflecting. I often find that I am much more prepared to respond to tomorrow's questions, when I have actually reflected on yesterday's answers. But with that being said, I often wonder about the questions we are asking ourselves. Because, the questions we ask, will always frame our reflection. If we ask the wrong question or worse, keep from asking the correct one, then our evaluation will be invalid, or at least incomplete. So I have tried to look at my own questions and reframe them, if only to widen my looking and change my perspective. I share just a few of my changes. . .

Old Question

What did I get out of worship today?
How or when was I distracted in worship today? (what did I bring in with me that kept me from worship)
Did my week begin, or did it end with Worship?

Reframed Question

What did I put in to worship today?
Who did I worship today? Was it truly God, and God alone?
Where will I worship tomorrow, and the next day, and the next day? What part of my day will I give to God on Purpose?

Ladies, February will find us with “Nothing To Prove”

“Nothing to Prove”, the newest study by Jennie Allen, will be the subject of two women’s study groups in February.

Stacey Boerner (Dir. of Children's Ministries) and Cheryl Mann (Director of Apple Tree Preschool) will be co-leading the nighttime version of “Nothing To Prove”. See below what Cheryl has to say about this new study.

For me, this book is a game changer...it's not just a breath of fresh air y'all, it's too good not to share! Stacey & I were blessed to be on the Launch Team and received our copy of the book early. I've read it in its entirety TWICE in one week ...and my poor book has highlights and underlines and doodles galore... it's THAT kind of book for me.

Stacey and I are excited and looking forward to getting back together in the evenings after the holidays to share all this book has to offer.”

In peace, Cheryl

“Nothing To Prove” will be offered in a daytime and evening format.

The night group will meet on Sunday evenings at 5:45 p.m., starting Feb. 5.

Something’s Brewing, the Tuesday morning group, will begin the study on February 7 at 9 a.m.

Participants can choose to order their books though a group buy or individually.

Books are approximately $16 each and can be ordered by calling the office at 985-641-5829.

For Kindle users, “Nothing To Prove” is available at a discounted rate of $12 on Amazon.

A nursery will be provided if needed. If this is a service that would help you attend the study, please call the church office or email suzie@aldersgate-slidell.org to reserve a space for your child.

Nursery reservations are required so we can provide appropriate supervision.

Aldersgate Angel Tree 2016

Aldersgate reached out to community child care centers for our Angel Tree this year: Rainbow Child Care in Slidell and Lacombe/Mandeville Head Start. The “angels” are children who may not have received any gifts this year.

A total of 70 angels were adopted by our congregation!

So many of you answered this call and shopped with your heart to make sure that each child has a special present under the tree for them this year. I can only imagine the smiling faces, the high-pitched screams and the joy that this will bring to the kids and their parents on Christmas morning!

It was a blessing to serve with this wonderful ministry,

CURSILLO / A TIME FOR SPIRITUAL RENEWAL

Thursday, February 9 - Sunday, February 12

An Encounter with Christ

As your faith is challenged in a pluralistic world, ask yourself...

Do you want to live your faith in your daily life?

Do you desire a Christian Community with which to share your faith journey?

Do you wish to enrich your relationship with God?

Do you want to be more confident in sharing your faith with our secular world?

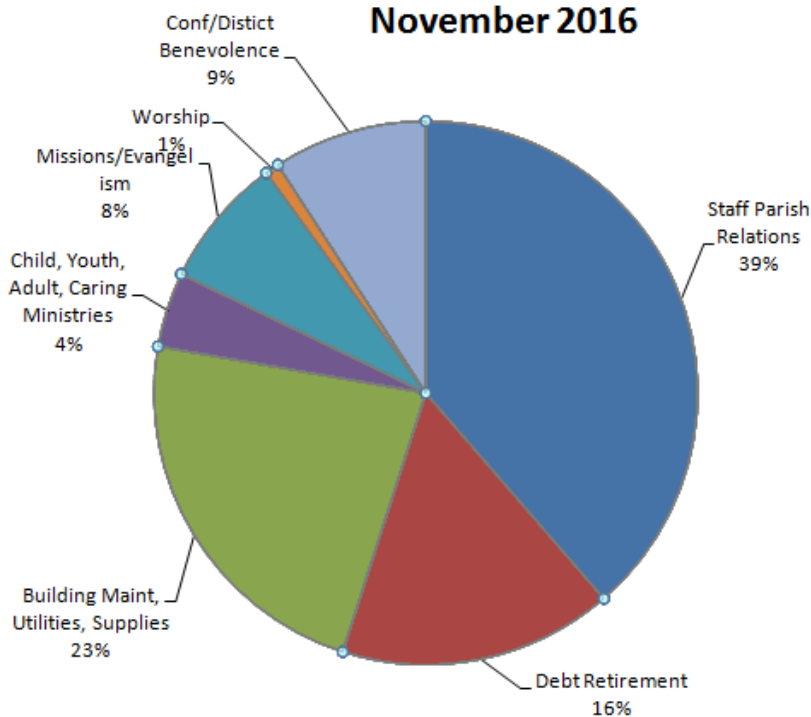

If you answered “Yes” to these questions, Cursillo will help you develop, live and share your spirituality in today’s society. A three-day weekend program, Cursillo offers a way to be motivated in your spiritual life. Discussions are led by Methodist lay people and spiritual advisors and emphasis the meaning of grace and the Sacraments as well as the need for prayer and ways of living life in union with God.

The next Louisiana Cursillo weekend is scheduled for February 9-12 at the Wesley Center (Methodist Conference Center) in Woodworth.

To participate, you must have a sponsor who is active in Cursillo. For more information about the Cursillo experience, contact Clint Crosier at 985-641-9350 or by email at clintcrosier@bellsouth.net; Joann Lightfoot at 985-290-3071; or Rick Lightfoot 985-649-5736.
