Christmas Eve Worship—Dec. 24

5:00pm - Family Service with Children’s Tableau and Candles

7:00pm - Traditional Service with Tableau

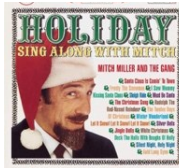

11:00pm - Contemplative/Contemporary Service

From the time that I was a very small child, I could differentiate between the “world’s Christmas” and the “real Christmas.”

Sure, I believed in Santa Claus...did I just use the past tense there? I loved Christmas carols. I have mentioned before that one of my favorite things to do during Christmas was to hang out in “our Christmas Tree room” and listen for hours to “Sing along with Mitch.”

Pretty much, no one wanted to hear me sing...so, it was just me and Mitch.

But, my true understanding of the season came through the many events that I, as a child, participated in at St. Paul’s United Methodist Church in Harahan, Louisiana.

The truth is “if the doors to that church were open, I was likely inside.” We lived almost exactly a mile from the church. Whether I walked, rode my bike or got a ride from a church friend or my dad, I was connected to that church. I was the first teenager, at the age of 14, who served on the (then) Council on Ministries of the church.

And, for all of the gifts that the church gave me as a child, an understanding of the true meaning of Christmas may be the most important. Sure, I loved the “annual” Children’s Christmas play; the outside live Nativity (I still chuckle that one year I was an angel-I know, right?); Christmas Caroling to the shut-ins; the too many to name Choir Cantatas (under the direction of the late Jane Ellis); Mrs. Marie Fine’s fabulous organ playing, especially her rendition of “Ring the Bells.” I still get goose bumps; the Chrismon Tree, lit with a hundred lights. How do I know this? Because every year, we were told that each light represented each family in the church and that there were 100 families.

Yes, I loved, loved, loved all of that.

While some of that defined the “real meaning of Christmas” it was the scriptures, the hymnody and the images of the story that cultivated in my heart what Christmas really is.

If you listen carefully to the “texts” of Christmas, you will hear that Christmas, at its heart, is a penitential season.

“Come thou long expected Jesus, born to set Thy people free; From our fears and sins release us, let us find our rest in Thee.”

“O come, O come, Immanuel, and ransom captive Israel that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.”

These were dark, difficult times for Israel. It has been four hundred years since they have “had a word from the Lord.” It has been six hundred years since the Jews were exiled from their home in Palestine to Babylon. When the Jews returned to Jerusalem, the city and the Temple had been destroyed. Enter King Herod. Herod began to rebuild the city, extravagantly. This increased the taxes, twice-fold: A 10% Temple tax and an additional 10% of income to be spent within the city gates of Jerusalem. The poor became poorer and the wealthy became wealthier. And, Herod had become a part of Rome and Rome had become a part of Jerusalem.

These were dark, difficult times. The Prophets had foretold of the consequences of disobedience to God’s Holy Law. Still, the people sinned. Micah, Jeremiah and Isaiah all prophesied of the coming of the new King, the Messiah.

But, that had been almost 800 years before. And, instead of receiving the Messiah, there was exile and hardship. Had God actually forgotten God’s people?

These were dark, difficult times.

Today, we are living in dark, difficult times. It is time for repentance, for turning one’s life around, for recognizing God’s great love delivered in the tiny, package of a sweet, little baby Jesus boy.

I was a child sitting in that church, at the age of eight or nine years old, and, I was in dark, difficult times. I can’t tell you how I know that but, I know that. I can tell you that I wept openly and thankfully that God loved me so much that God sent God’s Son into my life...even to death on the cross for me...I knew that my only hope that the darkness and sinfulness of my life could be overcome was through the Incarnation of God in the person of Jesus of Nazareth and through the power of God’s Holy Spirit.

This is what the church gave to me in Christmas...well, I am still that broken little 9 year old girl whose living in a dark, difficult world whose only hope is in that tiny little sweet baby Jesus born in Bethlehem on a not so silent night more than 2000 years ago.

Throughout these pages are the many “offerings” of Christmas. How can I not hope that you, too, may find Christ in Christmas?

Grown-Ups Coffee & Conversation January 24, 10am-Genesis Hall

The homeless veterans program at Camp NORA will be the subject of our January 2019 Coffee and Conversation here at Aldersgate Church on Thursday, January 24th.

Ed Lewis and Jeff Marshall, organizers of Camp NORA, with stands for No One Rides Alone, will talk about the new residential program for homeless veterans in Folsom. The program is sponsored by Ride of the Brotherhood.

According to the ROTB website, statistics show that approximately one out of every four homeless males is a veteran. Veterans returning from combat duty with PTSD, disabling physical injuries, and few marketable skills or transferable skills often can't find or keep jobs. As many as 30 homeless veterans are living on the streets in St. Tammany parish on any given night.

The January gathering will offer information about what is being done locally to help veterans break the pattern of homelessness and hopelessness.

"Coffee and Conversation ..." is a monthly presentation sponsored by the Grown-Ups senior ministry. The program will begin at 10 a.m. with refreshments provided. It is free and open to all seniors in the general public.

For more information about the Spring Grown-Ups schedule, contact Suzie Hunt at suzie@aldersgate-slidell.org, or call the church office 985-641-5829.

HELP WANTED

Grief Support Program Starts January 6

After the funeral, when the cards and flowers stop coming, most of the people return to their normal lives. But many people continue to grieve and feel alone.

To assist them through the grieving process, GriefShare, a 13 week support group is available to offer help and encouragement after the death of a spouse, child, family member or friend.

“I have found that this structured program has a good balance of education and guided discussion. The freedom to share one’s emotions and thoughts or to just be a listener creates a safe, warm, supportive environment to process grief and grow ‘from mourning to joy.’” said David W Kidder, Ph.D., a GriefShare facilitator.

GriefShare sessions include video presentations, discussion and a workbook component. Participants can join in the GriefShare sessions at any time in the 13-week program. Aldersgate United Methodist Church will offer a GriefShare program beginning Sunday, Jan. 6 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. The sessions will be facilitated by Debbie and Jimmy Watts in the Cokesbury Bldg, Room 206.

Participation is open to the general public. A $15.00 donation is requested to cover the cost of the workbook. Registration is required and can be done by going to www.griefshare.org or by contacting the church ofc.

Something’s Brewing on Tuesday Mornings

Tuesday, January 8 will find the members of the Something’s Brewing Bible Study/Book Club kicking off the new year with a new study. We will be using “The Armor of God” by Priscilla Shirer for our discussions. Linda Neville will be leading this study.

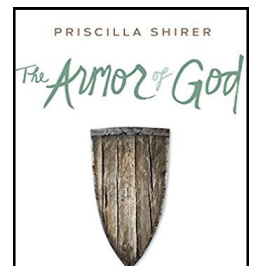

“All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you — unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. A devoted, devilish enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, your mind, your marriage, your children, your relationships, your resilience, your dreams, your destiny. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. If you’re tired of being pushed around and caught with your guard down, this study is for you.

The Enemy always fails miserably when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion. The Armor of God, more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory, is an action plan for putting it on and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory.” (7 Sessions)

Something’s Brewing is open to all women, church membership not required. Over cups of hot beverages, we study the word of God, learn from each other and leave refreshed and ready for the rest of our week.

We meet in Genesis Hall on Tuesday morning’s at 9 a.m. Books are available in the church office for $15. A nursery is available upon request with advance notice.

What a Day! We are thankful for all the people who made the 20th Annual Community-wide Thanksgiving Dinner a success. More than 1450 delicious turkey dinners, complete with all the trimmings and PIE were served on site or delivered by a group of friendly drivers.

Although Aldersgate was Turkey Central for the weeks leading up to the big day, several area churches, businesses and a multitude of volunteers helped make it happen. They recruited volunteers, solicited donations of food and supplies, smoked the birds and then pulled them apart, cooked, served, drove and, most important, cleaned up the kitchen.

We are thankful for the opportunity to serve so many people in our community and share the love of Christ on this wonderful holiday.

Let us come before him with thanksgiving.
Psalm 95:2, NIV

A shared note from one of this year's volunteers.

After getting their route and collecting the dinner boxes, they volunteers drove to a rural part of our parish.

Pulling up to the address on the sheet, they stopped in front of what appeared to be an abandoned mobile home. Just to be sure, they walked up and knocked on the door. Turns out trailer was occupied. Someone answered the knock and received the much appreciated meals from the volunteer.

To serve and be served are both Gifts from God.

	October 2018	2018 Year to Date
Income	$ 54,032.67	$ 541,028.53
Expense	$ 62,781.48	$ 619,813.43
Net Loss $	$ (8,748.81)	$ (78,784.90)

I know, many of you are finished with your Christmas gift buying. Some of you have yet to begin.

So, here's an idea: how about giving an extra year end gift to the church's operating budget?

If you have already completed your pledged giving for the year, perhaps you can consider giving an extra month's giving, or other discretionary amount, to the church in 2018.

If you have yet to complete your giving for the 2018 financial year, please do so, as you are able.

If you are not giving to the church presently, a year end gift is a great place to start.

Our completion of our operating budget for the end of 2018 is dependent upon our having a better than average month... a much better than average month.

The stronger we finish, the stronger we will begin for 2019.

FINAL YEAR-END GIVING

Please make sure your final year-end giving contribution/tithes are dated by December 31, 2018. We can receive 2018 contributions through January 7, 2019, as long as the checks are properly dated. Gifts may be turned in through the offering plate, the church office or put in the drop box.
